Turn Up the Volume With Five Full-and-Fabulous Looks—It's Easy With Velcro Stylers!

Longing for a new style, but not craving a cut or color? You can have a brand new look—or five new looks—in a matter of minutes without any drastic hairdo changes, thanks to Velcro Stylers. Hair and makeup artist Jeff Gautier of Wilhelmina Model Agency designed these simple body-enhancing tress transformations using classic Velcro Stylers, made to give hair vivacious volume and the power to stay put.

SLEEK PEEK

Here's a glimpse at a classy style—with a little Flip action!

Creating Change

1. Wind hair onto Velcro Stylers, stacking them across the crown and down the sides of your head.
2. Blow-dry tresses and remove rollers.
3. Backcomb hair at its roots using a paddle brush to smooth locks off the face.
4. Anchor the top of hair with bobby pins or a barrette.

HIP HIGH

Lift up locks with this body-infused upsweep with a relaxed elegance.

Creating Change

1. Roll hair across the crown and down the sides in rows to set in Velcro Stylers.
2. Blow-dry hair. Remove rollers.
3. Using a large paddle brush, sweep hair up onto the crown in a high ponytail, pulling only half the hair through an elastic band to form a "folded" ponytail.
4. Fan folded portion of hair out and secure with hairpins. Pull out wispy strands on opposite sides.

BOUNTIFUL BOUNCE

Fullness is the name of the game in this volumized look.

Creating Change

1. Set hair in Velcro Stylers, rolling hair across the crown and down the sides in rows.
2. Blow-dry tresses and remove rollers.
3. Brush out locks with head turned upside down; mist with a light spray of holding spritz.
4. Toss head back and use a vent brush to lift sections of hair at the roots and smooth in waves.

LUSCIOUS LIFT

For hair that's straight but not flat, Velcro rollers create volume.

Creating Change

1. Set hair in Velcro Stylers, rolling hair across the crown and down the sides in rows. Spritz lightly with hairspray.

2. Blow-dry mane and remove rollers.
3. Tease hair at the roots with head upside down and mist with hair-spray. Bring head upright and smooth hair gently.
4. Kick the ends up in a Flip using hands and a brush.

LONG 'N' LUSH

Give layers a texture treat with some va-va-voom volume! Hair falls straight into a fun flip with this style.

Creating Change

1. Prep damp hair with styling mousse.
  2. Set locks in Velcro Stylers, rolling hair across the crown and down the sides in rows.
  3. Blow-dry tresses and remove rollers.
  4. Brush hair into an off-center part and work a modest amount of pomade through locks.
  5. Smooth mane with a paddle brush.
